SAGE TEA BEAUTIFIES

DON'T STAY GRAY! SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR DARKENS HAIR SO NATURALLY THAT NOBODY CAN

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-

Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prets Food Fermentation, Sour, Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion you have already tried pepsin, blemuth, soda, charcoal, drugs ard various digestive aids, and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief. But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic, just try the effect of a little bisurated magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, oxide or milk, but the pure bisurated magnesia, which you can obtain from practically, any druggist in either powdered or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or wo compressed tablets with a little vater after your next meal and see what a difference this makes. It will nstantly neutralize the dangerous, armful acid in the stomach which now auses your food to ferment and sour. raking gas, wind, flatulence, hearturn and the bloated or heavy dumpy ceiling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little bisurated magnesia immediately after a meal you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover, the continued use of the bisurated magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

Did It Ever Occur To You That You Are More Exacting In Your Demands On the Street Railway Than On Any Other Industry That You Favor With Your Patronage

You expect the car to arrive at your station or white pole exactly on time and to get you to your destination on the minute. Though your favorite barber may keep you waiting, your grocer and your butcher fail to deliver your order as promised, and your physician comes when it is convenient, without your writing a letter to the editor.

If the cars are late or overcrowded you forget that nine trips out of ten they are on time, and have many seats unoccupied, and are operating at a loss.

If the motorman doesn't stop just when and where you think he should, you forget that leaves and frost and fog make slippery rails that tax his skill to the limit, and that your signal wasn't as clear as it might have been.

And when you snap out your complaint to the conductor and he fails to respond in polite and apologetic language you forget that he, too, may have indigestion resulting from hurrying through a breakfast that wasn't ready on schedule While waiting for your car did you ever stop to think that in and under the car is a mass of machinery with intricate apparatus for its control, every detail of formed and distributed? That back of all these are the various classes of material and supplies necessary to generate power and to replace parts subject to wear and breakage, and-

That back of all these is the organization made up of human beings so far as is possible especially qualified to do the task assigned to them, but all subject to failure and, like yourself, capable of error?

That failure anywhere in this long chain made up of persons and materials may be the cause of delay or accident. Isn't it wonderful, then, that there is so little real cause for complaint?

You forget you make your errors, and they are covered up in the scrap heap or the waste basket. Your memory fails you and it is corrected tomorrow. The motorman and the conductor forget, and the results appear in big headlines in the daily
